

Articles

---

School Exclusions and Disability Discrimination

We recently provided legal assistance in the successful case of McGibbon v Glasgow City Council, a case we supported via our access to justice project, in which Iain Nisbet of Cairn Legal acted for Mrs McGibbon. This case was taken by the mother of a nine year old child who had been excluded from school on a few occasions following behaviour that was linked to his Asperger's diagnosis.

Read the article here

AA v Advocate General

This briefing summarises some of the key findings in a recent Judicial Review which highlights the issue of the difficulties experienced by successful claimants in enforcing awards made by the Employment Tribunal.

Read the article here

Religion and Belief in Europe

eBulletin readers with an interest in discrimination on the grounds of religion and belief may be interested in two recent publications written by or with contributions from the Commission. The first is a report by Equinet Europe Faith in Equality, March 2018 and the second is a shorter article; Religion and Belief in Europe, SCOLAG issue 488 June 2018 p125.

Read more

News

---

Discrimination Explained Videos

We recently published a series of short videos, featuring members of the Scotland legal team, each of which explain different aspects of discrimination law, from the nine protected characteristics to the different forms of discrimination. These can be found on the relevant pages of our website and on our Youtube channel.

EHRC Youtube Channel

Brexit Roundtable Reports

The Commission jointly funded and arranged a series of three roundtables, with the Scottish Universities Legal Network on Europe and the Scottish Centre on European Relations, focussing on different aspects of Brexit in February and March 2018. But don't worry if you missed the events, the Briefing Reports are now available. The three reports can be accessed by clicking the links below.

Brexit, EU Citizenship and Future Immigration Policy: What's Left to Play For?

Brexit Transition and the Future Trade Deal: Implications for Citizens' Rights

Human Rights After Brexit: Gaps? Enforcement? Progress?

Adviser Support Scotland

We continue to offer our Adviser Support service for frontline agencies in Scotland to access high quality second-tier advice on equality and human rights issues. We can be reached by email or telephone (0141 228 5990) from Monday-Friday.

More information

Victory for Gig Economy Workers' Rights

Thousands of workers in the 'gig economy' are set to benefit from a major Supreme Court ruling in June on workers' rights to holiday pay and other benefits. To find out more about the case, which the Commission funded, follow the link below.

Read more

Contact us about a case

We are interested in hearing from solicitors, advocates and advisers who are bringing cases which we may consider funding or in which we may intervene. To speak with our legal team about a case or issue, call us on 0141 228 5951 (Monday to Friday). Find out more.

Stay connected

---

Equality and Human Rights Commission Scotland
151 West George Street G2 2JJ

Unsubscribe